

I am very disturbed that the FCC is allowing Sinclair Broadcasting to air an anti-Kerry documentary so close to the election. The consequence of this action will be to unfairly influence the outcome of the presidential election. It is only fair that the FCC intervene and stop such partisan use of the public airwaves. At the very least, the FCC should demand that Sinclair also air on all of its stations a pro-Kerry program like "Going Upriver". I'm hoping that the decision makers here will listen to their conscience and not their pocket books.
